(By Father Ryan.)

Do we weep for the heroes who died for us?
Who living were true and tried for us,
And dying sleep side by side for us—

The Martyr-band

That hallowed our land

With the blood they shed in a tide for us.

Ah! fearless on many a day for us
They stood in the front of the fray for us,
And held the foeman at bay for us,

And tears should fall

Fore'er o'er all

Who fell while wearing the gray for us.

How many a glorious name for us,
How many a story of fame for us,
They left,—would it not be blame for us,

If their memories part

From our land and heart,

And a wrong to them, and shame for us?

No, no, no, they were brave for us,
And bright the lives they gave for us,—
The land they struggled to save for us

Will not forget

Its warriors yet

Who sleep in so many graves for us.

On many and many a plain for us
Their blood poured down all in vain for us,
Rich, red and pure,—like a rain for us,

They bleed,—we weep,

We live,—they sleep—

"All Lost"—the only refrain for us.

But their memories e'er shall remain for us,
And their names, bright names, without strain for us,—
The glory they won shall not wane for us,

In legend and lay

Our heroes in gray

Shall forever live over again for us.

DICK DOWLING MONUMENT

ERECTED TO THE MEMORY OF THE HEROIC DEED OF DICK DOWLING
AND FORTY-TWO OTHER IRISHMEN WHO DEFEATED
15,000 AT SABINE PASS, TEXAS.

This brave little band of Irishmen, with two cannon, in a battle lasting about thirty minutes disabled the Federal gunboats Clifton and Sachem and crippled another gunboat. Over one hundred Federals were killed and 429 prisoners, together with the two disabled gunboats, were captured, while the Confederates did not lose a man. Thus ended the attempt made by 15,000 Federals to land on Texas soil.
